

Come and explore the glorious Lot Valley in South-West France!

The Lot valley is full of fascinating valleys and picturesque villages, surrounded by the famous award-winning Cahors vineyards. La Petite Maison Bleue is situated within the heart of the 13th Century mediaeval ville of Puy l'Evêque, overlooking the river Lot. Built of local stone and colour-washed in the local tradition, this spacious cottage is ideal for the perfect holiday. Whatever your interests, the Lot valley offers it all. The town has 6 restaurants, 4 patisseries and a number of small shops. Everything needed is within walking distance.

La Petite Maison Bleue

Traditional colour-washed cottage in medieval Puy l'Evêque

The cottage has just been renovated retaining its original beams and wooden floor. The double fronted two-storey cottage has a well-equipped kitchen to the left of the front door, including cooker, fridge, dishwasher and microwave oven. To the right of the kitchen is the open plan dining room with a traditional round table and chairs. To the right of the dining area you will find the sitting room with two comfortable bed settees, a TV and video player with a large selection of videos to rent, and reading material. A wooden staircase leads upstairs to two double bedrooms with en-suite shower rooms.

The cottage has central heating for those colder months. Sleeps 4/6.

Private parking can be found in the nearby courtyard and a private terrace area with table and chairs for outside entertaining and sunbathing.

